CANDIDATES

On this page are represented many of the candidates whose names will appear on the ballot next Tuesday.

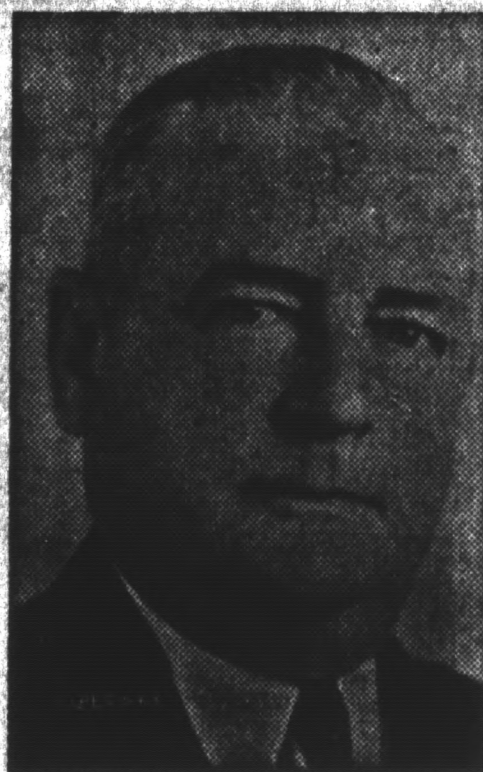

They ask you to study their qualifications and to go to the polls and vote Tuesday.

EXCUSE IT PLEASE

The editors ask candidates and their campaign committees to please excuse the fact that in this issue there are no political stories nor publicity—we're more sorry than you, for Penny Boynton, who has been handling all the political news, is in the hospital for an appendectomy.

Rather than to rush and bungle stories, the editorial staff decided to take a little more time and give all candidates a good story in the "Vote Tomorrow" edition which will be distributed full coverage, Monday.

PETERSON RETAINS PUBLIC CONFIDENCE

Analysis of election returns throughout the last few weeks reveals an unusual situation in are evincing an intensive but silent interest in uations in which they are involved. Never h little ballyhoo on behalf of candidates, never so little apparent surface excitement. But do every voter today is taking seriously the thi No more fooling. No more voting on half fact ing to the last minute. No more voting for Jo cause he's a good fellow and, after all, what d more of that. The war has made us all deadl

That's one of the reasons why the campa county executive isn't kicking up so much du San Mateo county have their minds made u the prime August 25, erson.

COL. FREDERICK PETERSON

He has done well along that line in the incumbency. He would have done better for and for the individual taxpayer if he hadn't his energy fighting the majority of a board made Peterson their Public Enemy No. 1 everything he advocated. Given a full bo willing to co-operate with him in an all-out we might go a long way toward keeping o gets balanced while we pay for the war.

Peterson's chief opposition has always clique of which some supervisors have been people have always been for Peterson beca in him honesty, loyalty to them, and a ru to do the right thing.

They voted for him twice in 1938, onc single-handed, advocated changing the cour from appointive to elective, and again whe ticians in their plan to elect their own repre were they with this seizure of their admini they organized a countywide campaign ag hurled on the 1939 ballot a charter ame Peterson's job. Of course, they lost, but again in vain, this time with an amendn office to their own control by making it a

It is significant that one of Peterson's the present campaign was a member of t visors who fought Peterson so consistent desperately to persuade the voters three y the county executive job entirely, because necessary. Now he wants it himself.

That's another thing about Peterson. ery about him. There's no blowing hot and the political wind goes. He's on the same ro same way as he was when he made his ca said then it would be cheaper for the count ment the way he suggested and the people his whole campaign today. He just goes more and more economy, more and more administration of county affairs, more and the job of government. He hasn't change the people have, either.
